

Morrow County Non-Discrimination Notice

Morrow County is committed to a non-discrimination plan in the conduct of its business, including meeting its responsibilities under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and other federal and state laws, and to the delivery of equitable and accessible services.

Morrow County is dedicated to ensuring that no person is subjected to discrimination with regard to race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy (including childbirth and related medical conditions), sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, domestic violence victim status, limited English proficiency, or any other status protected by applicable federal, Oregon, or local law.

Any person who believes they have been subjected to unlawful discriminatory practice, may file a complaint. For more information, to request language assistance, or to file a complaint about discrimination or retaliation, contact:
